DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendment filed on May 24, 2006 has been entered and made of record.
Claims 4-6,14-18,23-24 are pending.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 4-6,14-18,23-24 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 4-6,14-18,23-24 are allowable over the prior art of record because the Examiner found neither prior art cited in its entirety, nor based on the prior art, found any motivation to combine any of the said prior art which teaches a method of wirelessly activated document transportation comprising: wirelessly sending, from a mobile computing device to a scanner, and electronic address of document server and a request to image a paper document at the scanner, imaging the paper document with the scanner, storing the electronic document in a memory of the scanner; and sending the electronic document from the scanner to the document server at the electronic address provided by the mobile computing device, respectively, as set forth in Claims 4,23 and wirelessly obtaining the document identifier and an electronic address from the first scanner, querying the first scanner via the document server, using the electronic address of the first scanner and the document identifier to request the electronic document from the first scanner; and sending the electronic document from the first scanner to the document server, set forth in Claims 6, 24 and a mobile computing device having a wireless communication module configured for sending a request to the scanner to image the paper document and configured for identifying to the scanner an electronic address of the document server, as set forth in claim 14 and the scanner including a memory to store the electronic document and a document identifier associated with the stored electronic document; wirelessly sending to the document server the electronic address of the scanner and the document identifier and wirelessly sending to the document server a request to the document server to obtain the electronic document at the electronic address of the scanner using the document identifier, as set forth in Claim 14 including all of the features recited therein.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
